

Accommodation in Paris

Below is a non-exhaustive list of accommodation on offer for researchers in Paris. These are usually for medium- to long-term stays.

Residences

Centre Culturel Irlandais (5th arrondissement)

5 Rue des Irlandais, 75005 Paris

Artistic and research residence with a lively cultural programme, located in a former seminary. Open to both Irish residents and citizens and visitors with an interest in Irish culture; during the summer (May – September), the CCI also opens its doors to international students, teachers and visitors. Long-term residents may stay up to a year.

All rooms are ensuite, and kitchen facilities are shared.

More information: <https://www.centreculturelirlandais.com/en/>

Residence Internationale d'Enseignants-Chercheurs Champollion (5th arrondissement)

15 Rue Champollion, 75005 Paris

Residence for teachers and researchers, available for short- and long-term stays.

A range of self-contained accommodation, from studios to three-room apartments. For stays of over a week, rent is inclusive of a weekly cleaning service.

More information: <https://www.crous-paris.fr/le-crous/nos-prestations-evenementielles/residence-internationales-denseignants-chercheurs-champollion/>

Villa Louis Pasteur (5th arrondissement)

3 Rue des Ursellines, 75005 Paris

Research residence for visiting scholars, for short to medium stays.

A range of self-contained accommodation, from studios to apartments. The rent includes cleaning service and linens.

More information: <https://www.villa-louis-pasteur.com/>

Maison Suger, Fondation Maison des Sciences de l'Homme (6th arrondissement)

16 Rue Suger, 75006 Paris

Research residence for the humanities and social sciences. Applicants must hold a PhD and should hold an academic position; affiliation with a French institution is an advantage. Stays may last between one and twelve months — stays of three months or more are preferred.

A range of self-contained accommodation, from studettes to two-room apartments. Applications should be submitted between four and six months prior to the intended dates of residence.

More information: <https://www.fmsh.fr/en/programmes/research-residence-maison-suger>

Residence Les Récollets (10th arrondissement)

154 Rue du Faubourg Saint-Martin, 75010 Paris

Artistic and research residence, located in an old convent. Applicants should be partnered with one of the Centre's sponsorship organisations.

A range of self-contained accommodations, priced according to square footage.

More information: <https://www.centre-les-recollets.com/>

Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris (14th arrondissement)

17 Boulevard Jourdain, 75014 Paris

International and cross-institutional campus of student and researcher accommodation, including residences for specific nationalities and the Fondation Victor Lyon for researchers. Facilities include a library, a sports centre and artistic spaces. For student residences you must be enrolled in a French higher education institution.

A range of accommodation (both shared and self-contained) available, depending on the residence.

More information: <https://www.ciup.fr/en/>

Individual Arrangements

SabbaticalHomes.com

Provider of temporary home rentals and exchanges for academics.

More information: <https://www.sabbaticalhomes.com/>

H-France Housing Digest

Regular postings of available accommodation, plus the ability to post regarding seeking accommodation.

More information: <https://h-france.net/housing-digest/>